VOICES OF THE PAST

“The Christian Indian Center lives for mission. We worship, we study, we share, and we care, in order to be the body of Jesus Christ in the Denver area, and beyond. Our fellowship is exciting and warm. We want to accept all people, because in Jesus Christ, God has accepted us. You are welcome here. Come, share in the life He has given us. If we are not living for the mission (reaching out and sharing with others the hope of our lives for serving the needs and concerns of our fellow Indians) then, we must ask and honestly answer, what are we and what are we living for. Let us encourage one another to carefully consider the critical issues of “who are we?” for that will largely determine what we do, what we are about, and where our efforts will be directed.”
